//// //

F C C7 F
O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
C G G7 C C7
For purple mountain majesties, above the fruited plain! / .

F C C7 F
America! America! God shed his grace on thee
Bb F Bb C7 F
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea!

F C C7 F
O beautiful, for patriot dream, that sees beyond the years,
C G G7 C C7
Thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears! / .

F C C7 F
America! America! God shed his grace on thee
Bb F Bb C7 F
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea!

F C C7 F
O beautiful for heroes proved, in liberating strife.
C G G7 C C7
Who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life! / .

F C C7 F
America! America! May God thy gold refine.
Bb F Bb C7 F
Till all success be nobleness, and every gain divine!

F C C7 F
O beautiful for glory-tale of liberating strife.
C G C C7
When once and twice, for man's avail men lavished precious life! / .

F C C7 F
America! America! God shed his grace on thee
Bb F Bb C7 F
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea.

(Slow down)

Bb F Bb C7 F F
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea. /
